Engaging in climate protection (from left): Florian Lörincz (Funding Assoc.), Heiko Schlombs and Anja Lippmann (both Climate Protection Agency), Wolfgang Gemba (Peine district), Christoph Petersen (Climate Protection Agency) and Holger Gröbitz and Professor Nasir El Bassam (both IFEED.org).

Heat and rain: a combination that is typical for this summer - and to which we must get used to; because climate change is omnipresent - even in the district of Peine. In the fight against climate change, the association for the "Climate Protection Agency Hildesheim-Peine" has been founded. The climate protection agency headquartered in Hildesheim in the district of Peine -...
